Rules

10.31 & 10.32 (Clarification) Parenthesized missile units have a Combat Strength of one (1) when attacking adjacent enemy units in the Combat Phase. They retain their parenthesized value for defense when attacked in an enemy Combat Phase.

Page 10 Last sentence going into page 11 should read, "Cavalry is doubled only once, and does not receive a charge bonus on the first turn."

Page 11 Historical Notes on Lake Trasimeme. The first paragraph ends with the sentence, "However, the Carthaginians soon ran into the Romans."

Page 14 Boudicca Scenario Rule 2.2 is "Romans move first in each of the 10 turns."

Page 15 Adrianople Scenario Rule 3.1. There are 4x4-6 rather than 3x4-6 in each group.

Counters and Maps

Corrected counters are supplied with this errata sheet.

Qadesh

Hittite 4-5 #30 sets up in 2020.

Meggido

The 2-5 in 4722 is an error. That hex should be blank.

2L, 11, 1-5: Replace the five Egyptian chariots with five Hittites (i.e. change background color).

1L, 11, 6-9: Replace the four Hittite cavalry archers with four Egyptians (i.e. changed background color).

1L, 12, 7-8: Replace two 3-4 Cavalry archers with chariots

1L, 12, 9-10: Replace two 3-4 Cavalry archers with two 1-9 Leaders

Adrianople

1R, 3, 2-4: Replace the three leaders with the three replacements. The leader strength value in hex 7021 is incorrect.

1R, 8, 10: An extra baggage unit (2-0) is provided. If playing with this baggage unit rather than the original (1-1), place it in hex 6017. The 2-0 does not move or attack, but does defend with a value of two (2).

Munda

Sheet #2, Left Side, Row 4, Column 10 (2L, 4, 10): Roman (2)-4 #3 should be replaced with 8-4 #30.

2L, 9, 1-8: Eight Labienus 6-4's (#1-8) have 5-4's on their backs. These are replaced with 6-4's #31-38.

Trasimene

Hannibal is a 3-9 Leader (map set-up is incorrect)

A 6-6 sets up in 1442 (map set-up is incorrect)

Cavalry units have been provided with purple background.
