

Grognard Game Plan is a free tool provided to registered Grognard.com site visitors to help organize convention play and other gaming sessions. Using Grognard Game Plan you can:

- List your gaming convention or event – all registered Grognard.com site visitors will be able to see it.
- Host a Game/Session – You can create game sessions at your convention, or any other listed convention.
- Specify the # of players needed for your game – Other gamers can see available slots and join your game if they choose to.
- Join someone else's game – It's as easy as clicking a "Join" button.

It's much simpler than exchanging dozens of emails, texts and phone calls to find out who is playing what, with whom, at what time, etc.!

Grognard Game Plan is totally free to use, but you *must* be a registered site visitor. The information that you provide when you register will only be used to facilitate Grognard site functions (like Grognard Game Plan) and will not be shared with *anyone* else. Period.

Your name, convention info and game info will be visible to all other registered Grognard users, so please don't enter any info that you would like to keep confidential (like your home address, phone #, etc.).

Review the next few pages to see how easy it is to get started with Grognard Game Plan!

After logging in to Grognard with your User ID and Password, look for the "Grognard Game Plan" graphic and click it.

This will take you to the introduction screen. After reviewing the information there, click on the "Proceed to the Grognard Game Plan page" button.

You can also click the "Read more about how Grognard Game Plan works" link to get more detailed instructions.

Finally, there's a link at the bottom that takes you to the Login/Registration page.
